

WANG, Bin (Bonnie)

Talent Development Consultant

Life and Career Coach

Bonnie have 20 years of working experience in cross-cultural environment, including 12 years as HR professional in China Branch of renown multinational corporations that enjoy worldwide leading position in chemical and shipping industries, mostly involved in design and execution of projects concerning talent development and deployment, change management, employee engagement, learning management, and performance management. Prior to her engagement in HR field, Bonnie was responsible for general business operation at a NGO with sponsorship from European Commission for 2.5 years, supporting hundreds of enterprises from China and various countries in Europe to explore win-win collaboration possibilities, and worked as university teacher in 2 Chinese cities for 5 years.

Bonnie holds Master degree of English Language from Jian University and Bachelor degree in Education of English as a Second Language from Shenyang Normal University.